DAUGHTERS' COLLEGE,

HARRODSBURG, KY.

We have determined to reorganize our School for Young Ladies, and hereafter to concentrate our abors within the limits of a few select classes. This we feel impolled to do for several reasons:

1. We cannot, without the erection of a mamnoth establishment, accommodate the annually nereasing patronage of the school. This we feel inwilling, at present, to undertake.

2. We desire to make our course of study more varied, extensive, and thorough; to devote more

2. We desire to make our course of study more varied, extensive, and thorough; to devote more ittention to the healthful development of mind and heart, and the formation of character.

3. We desire to relieve curselves of the distracting annoyances of a multitude, and at the same ime to surround our students with the more genal influence of home-life. We have some regard, lso, to the enlightened opinions of an advancing ge, which call for a higher, purer, and more culvating regime for our daughters.

4. We are not satisfied merely to Oversee our chool; we wish to bring each pupil at all times

chool; we wish to bring each pupil at all times nder our own immediate eye and personal influ-nce. We wish to render our own labor more prouctive, by bringing our experience and skill to ear directly upon every member of our class. 5. In fine, though large public schools have their tdvantages, yet we feel, as educators and as Christians, that it would be better for humanity and nore acceptable to God, to educate well, than to cutralize our influence by attempting to educate We propose, therefore, to limit our classes after the present term, which expired in June, to one half he present number. While this is a great sacrifice, in a pecuniary view, we hope that the increased good we may effect may secure for us a greater reward in the gratitude of our pupils and in the approbation that comes from God.

We particularly request that all applications for admission be made early; session commences September 17th

The Monster Union Meeting. To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

NEW YORK, Sept, 17. 1860, 23 A. M. There has been a terrible meeting here his night! I use the word with emphasis. The very air is charmed as with a sorcerer's spell, and something loads the gale not here ofore manifest in all my experience in polit cal assemblages. The people have assem bled by thousands; but not as was their wont at election carnivals! The elastic, gleeful, puoyant soul that was heretofore the animaion of these conventions is supplanted by a leeper, a more earnest, perchance a fiercer sentiment. The sinews of men are strong to a purpose. The atmosphere is heavy with the significance that a crisis has at last come; that the sword is suspended by a little nair over our great American feast of power, of glare, and of plenty-and God send us a safe deliverance, is the consecrated prayer of the thoughtful. O how anxiously from their of ladies and centlemen had secondled with immortal vision the strong agitation of our ship of State upon the sectional billows! An organized band of conspirators on the one hand; a mighty league of Goths on the other; clubs of military men making night hideous with the torches of sedition; the warm mem ory upon us of a sovereign State invaded; of massacres, poisons—horror upon horror.— And all in the germ! The lurid cloud gathers n the air-how then can men be happy unil all is assured!

The newspapers will give you the details of this monster Union assemblage, of the speeches, and the tone. Large as it was it would have been doubled if the committees had quite completed their union in time for publication to-day. Eloquent tongues vied with each other, and none spoke more grandy, more winningly, or was listened to with ness. leeper respect and conviction than was your Charles Carrolls that the King's sheriff would of the Empire State. Let every man henceforth to the day of election stand by his ams. We must make Lincoln's defeat memorable as well as sure. And the Northwest has a great speed you, and good night.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, dis-ordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, " I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature. are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which de-cimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking in-fection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, St. ANTHONY'S FIRE, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DIS-EASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM TED ON IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so nu-So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

The Shoe Pinches Terribly --- Trick No. 1,000 Exposed.

The recent elections in some of the southern States are conclusive of the effect the or disunion charge against the party which was founded by Yancey and is now led by Breckinridge and Lane. Kentucky believed that it was a disunion party, and in August last repudiated it by 23,000 majority. Something must be done, say the Yanceyites-unless the tide is turned, they will all go down. The waves of popular indignation will sweet over their heads and bury them forever. The ery of "stop thief" is raised; all at once the Yancey organ and speakers make the charge of disunion against Bell and Douglas, and their supporters. The central organ of the 22d inst. comes out with a leader seven columus in length, with the following sensation

"The Plot to Dissolve the Union - Further Particulars.—Douglas and Bell Implicated." The whole county will laugh at this effort, and will see at once the object of this counter cry of disunion. How does the Yeoman prove the charge of disunion against Bell and his party? It quotes from the speeches of John Bell in 1850 and 1858, which we have already shown do not contain one sen timent of disunion. We have already shown that John Bell, in 1856, said that the dissolution of the Union would be "the direst calam ity" which can befall the country. We have already shown that he said the greatest common interest was the safety and preservation of the Union." We have already shown that on the 18th March, 1858, he declared in the Senate that "LET POWER GO INTO WHATEVER HANDS IT MAY, LET US SAVE THE UNION!" We have already shown that even as far back as 1832 he was foremost in making "a plea for the Union."

In what other way does the Yeoman at tempt to sustain the charge? By quotations from the speeches and letters of A Burwell of Mississippi, A. Boteler, of Virginia, the Philadelphia Journal, H. W. Hilliard, o Alabama, Jere. Clemens, of Tennessee, and B. H. Hill, of Georgia. What these men are reported to have said constitutes the whole proof. Now let us examine the charges as to Mr. Burwell. Here is the entire statemen of the Yeoman:

A. BURWELL, OF MISSISSIPPI.

A prominent supporter of Mr. Bell, has, under date of August 10th, 1860, addressed a letter to ex-Gov. Foote, which we find published in the New York Herald, preceded by a most complimen tary notice and indorsement by Mr. Foote. In this letter, Mr. Burwell, says, in the event that "I know no men in the South who will, in such an nt, take up and bear the standard of the Unio

We are curious to know whether the Yeoman saw the entire letter of Mr. Burwell before it published the above in regard to him. Fortunately we have the entire letter. It was a letter addressed to the people of the which countenances such a traitor as Wm. North, to show them that the election of Lincoln would result in unpleasant effects even goes so far as to express an opinion that endeavoring to get Wm. L. Yancey to come the triumph of Lincoln would precipitate the cotton States into a revolution. But on examination of the letter of Mr. Burwell of Lincoln's election he knew no man in the solve the Union. South who will "take up and bear the standard of the Union," he meant to say, and did say, that no man would bear the standard of the Union party, since the triumph of northern sectionalism would eventually sectionalize the South and destroy the existence in the South, of an Union party. Here is the

"It is unreasonable to expect Union loving, con-servative men of the South to throw themselves into the breach; to head a forlorn hope, with the imminent prospect of certain destruction in more senses than one, as their only incentive to such a sacrifice. Is it fair, manly, and patriotic to put them in such a position, when there is no apparent necessity for so doing, and no great interests of the party in the South have been of no ordinary char acter. Let no man who is ambitious of persona or political distinction, at least so far as it is de pendent on Southern votes, attach himself to the party, when it shall be stunned and overwhelme by the shouts of victory, uttered by the adherent of those whom the majority of Southern people regard as deadly and implicable enemies to then and their institutions. I know no men who will, in such an event, take up and bear the standard of the Union, nor do I believe that any such exist."

the Union, nor do I believe that any such exist."

Did any one ever see a stronger instance in which the tearing of a single sentence Best two year old and over, A. C. Shropshire, from its immediate context conveys a meaning totally different from that which the writer intended? The evident intention of the Yeoman was to convey the impression Second best under one year old, A. C. Shropthat Mr. Burwell considered the election of Lincoln a sufficient cause for every southern man to abandon the Union of these States. Such is not the fact; and our readers will learn with surprise that in the very letter from which the Yeoman made the above extract Mr. Burwell distinctly says: "I DO NOT BELIEVE MYSELF THAT THE ELECTION OF REPUBLICANS, UNDER THE FORMS OF THE CONSTITUTION AND IN PURSUANCE OF LAW, IS JUST AND GOOD CAUSE FOR gines. part of Mr. Burwell's letter suppressed?

"The party for the Union is just beginning to ork here, and hope to give a good account of MIONISTS are losing strength every day. They beginning to get ashamed of their wretched de, and are becoming Union Shriekers." Will the Yeoman try it once more?

We will, in our next issue, follow up this ubject, so that the Yancevites will have not even the smallest loophole out of which to escape. Their cry of "stop thief" shall not avail. Let our speakers be on their guard against single sentences extracted from the letters of public men.

A Correction-The Marshall Family. In our issue of the 19th inst., some com-nents were made upon the speech made by Hon. Humphrey Marshall in this city on the 17th inst., in behalf of Breckinridge and Lane. In the same connection reference was hat distinguished gentleman. But there are portions of the article alluded to which might oe construed into an attack upon the integrity of the entire Marshall family. We desire allusion was made. There are many memcindest feelings as well as the highest respect. standing, influence, or integrity, personal or ville, Tenn., on the 27th inst. political, of such men as the venerable ex-Chief Justice Thos. A. MARSHALL, of Louisville; MARTIN P. MARSHALL and CHARLES A. MARSHALL, of Mason county; WM. C. MAR-SHALL, of Bracken county; Hon. A. K. MAR-SHALL, and others of that connection scattered throughout the whole of the State, all of whom occupy a deservedly high position in the esteem of the people of Kentucky .-Aside from the fact that most of them concur with us in regard to the politics of the day, our kind feelings for them would, alone, restrain us from casting any reflections upon the family to which they belong. This much s due to the relations which the proprietors of this paper have always sustained to many members of that family. It is especially due to a former editor of this paper, for whom they have always cherished the kindest feelings, and who is very closely related to the amily in question.

SILAS M. NOEL

Frenkfort, Sep. 12, 1860-tf.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citiz us generally of the United Sares, because the article has attained a repu tution heretolore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bit-ters for the last year amounted to over a halfmillion bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparaphysicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Litters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and agua and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of un-alloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system. giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic. and rejuvenating generally. We have the eviwho have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mothe. and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, body and mindrs generally aggravate them, is a necessity for a stimulant to recupe rate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally ally prefer the Bitters to all other invigora tors that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength. All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhæs, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all disenses or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hos tetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial. CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counter feits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrates STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters' b'own on the a de of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBER

THE SECOND VOLUME OF the "KENTUCKY FAR-THE SECOND VOLUME OF the "KENTUCKY FARMEE" closed with the month of June, and the Intel Volume commenced in July last. We promsed two years ago to try and give to the Agrisulturalists and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a air equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was paid for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and send us one on More additional names for the THIRD VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would published ONE VOLUME whether we obtained a sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. We redeemed that pledge. The subscription list increased for the Secont Volume, but is nothing like so large as it should be. Shaft we have the kind and continued support of its present patrons, together with them aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a generous Kentucky public.

The "Kentucky Farmer" will still be published monthy, in its present form of sixteen large quarto pages, for ONE DOLLAR per annum, payable invariably in advance. As the small amount charged for the paper will not justify the trouble and expense of collecting subscriptions, no paper will be forwarded unless paid for in advance.

THE Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a rep utation for elegance, economy, safety, an implicity far beyond any other artificial light the Vesper Gas flame and fixtures precisely re emble in form those of coal gas; but in brilliane nd purity of light it possesses a decided advan age over even Louisville coal gas. It requires n himney; there is no need of daily trimming o rick; and the construction of the fixture is so vick; and the construction of the fixture is simple that it is not liable to get out of order, and child can manage it readily. The gas burned in the Vesper fixtures is generated from pure coadil, without any admixture of alcohol or other oreign ingredient. It is entirely free from odos while burning, as, by a simple contrivance, the capor of the oil is mixed with the atmosphere, prousing perfect combustion and a most intense light. The light has been pronounced, by those who have and it in constant use for months, as most pleasant to the eye while reading or sewing, there being not dicker or unsteadiness in the flame. The Vespes Gas Light is portable, and can be used in town or country—in fact, wherever estificial light is recognitive—in fact, wherever estificial light is recountry-in fact, wherever artificial light is required. The fixtures themselves are adapted in styles to suit all tastes, from the plain single-light burner to the most costly chandelier. Each chan-delier is perfect in itself; there is no outlay to be nade for service pipes. The gas is generated in the burner, and all fixtures, from the cheap single-light burner to the expensive chandelier, are min-ature gas-works in themselves. They are sold a prices which do not exceed the cost of the ordinary as fixtures of similar style and ornamentation A price list will be sent to any address on applica-MERCHANTS
